

DEPUTY DISTRICT PUBLIC DEFENDER: DISTRICT ONE (BALTIMORE CITY)

The Maryland Office of the Public Defender (OPD) seeks an experienced attorney who will bring exceptional leadership, management, and excellent communication skills to the organization by serving as the Deputy District Public Defender for District One (Baltimore City). OPD's Baltimore City office is a large urban public defender's office with 200+ employees providing client-centered representation to juveniles and adults charged with misdemeanors and felonies in Baltimore City. The Agency's vision is for Justice, Fairness, and Dignity for All.

OVERVIEW OF THE POSITION

Deputy District Public Defender will report to the District Public Defender (DPD) and serve as a partner and advisor. The Deputy will champion OPD's mission, working collaboratively with the DPD, sharing responsibilities for executing District One policies and initiatives. These responsibilities include strategic planning, reporting and supervision of programs and the development of staff. As a critical member of the Leadership Team, s/he will assist with the management of the day-to-day operations and strategic planning for District One. The Deputy's leadership will benefit the internal operations of District One, as well as playing the crucial role of advising the DPD on matters pertaining to these internal operations. The Deputy will prepare short- and long-range plans, and work with the Leadership Team in formulating policies. The Deputy will develop and maintain close working relations with external stakeholders, such as community-based organizations, legal advocates and other allied organizations that work with the Office of the Public Defender. This position will be located at 201 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland, 21202.
