Geographical Preferences and Limitations:

The Maryland Office of the Public Defender has twelve geographic Districts. Successful 3L candidates will be extended an offer for a metropolitan region: Baltimore or greater Washington, D.C. The offices considered in our Baltimore metropolitan region include: Baltimore City, Baltimore County, Harford County, and Howard County. Offices considered in our Washington, D.C. metropolitan region include: Anne Arundel County, Montgomery County, Prince George's County, and Southern Maryland. We recognize that many candidates have geographical limitations: office locations that the candidate is not interested in being placed in for personal and /or practical reasons.

Please consult with our website and other internet resources to ensure that you realistically and accurately respond to the questions below. We heavily rely on the information requested to help ensure that placements are made consistent with OPD's needs and the attorney's preferences. OPD cannot guarantee that placement will be made in accordance with the applicant's geographical preferences, but we will not place someone in an office that they have identified as a limitation.

Geographical Preferences:

If you have geographical limitations, please use this space to clearly outline those limitations:

Please use this space to outline any other information pertaining to placement that you would like us to know:

Do you have any reason to anticipate a delay in the character and fitness investigation and determination stage of the Bar admission process: Yes (please append an explanation to your application) No

I hereby affirm that this application contains no willful misrepresentations or falsifications and that the information given by me is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I am aware that should an investigation disclose any misrepresentation or falsification, at any time, my application will be disapproved and that I will not be considered for employment with the Maryland Office of the Public Defender.
