

MARYLAND OFFICE OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER

Supplemental Information Sheet for Spring and/or Fall Class 2019

Name:

I am applying for a position in the following class:

Geographical Preferences and Limitations:

The Maryland Office of the Public Defender (OPD) includes twelve geographic Districts. We recognize that many candidates have geographical limitations: office locations that the candidate is not interested in for personal and/or practical reasons. Please realize that although Maryland is a relatively small state, our Oakland office is approximately six hours away from our Ocean City office. Please consult with our website and other internet resources to ensure that you realistically and accurately respond to the questions below.

Geographical Limitations:

If you have geographical limitations, please use this space to clearly outline those limitations:

Geographical preferences will be taken into consideration; however, because placements are made based on OPD's needs at the time of placement, OPD cannot guarantee that placements will be made in accordance with the applicant's geographical preferences.

Please rank below your geographical preferences:
